

Participating in a Virtual Planning and Zoning Meeting

The City of Temple continues to take proactive and preventive measures in alignment with recommendations from the CDC and local health officials to minimize transmission risks of COVID-19 for residents as well as city staff during the execution of city business and city operations.

The City of Temple has made the decision to hold the August 3, 2020 Planning and Zoning meeting via web conference to allow members of the public to participate from the safety of their home, in alignment with Bell County's Stay Home Stay Safe directive.

Ways to Participate in Monday's Virtual Planning & Zoning Meeting

1. Via Meeting Site - Recommended for full participation

- It is recommended that members of the public wishing to virtually attend Monday's meeting use the below links to access video and audio of the meeting for Planning and Zoning meeting:
- Residents participating in this manner will be able to fully participate in the meeting with access to audio, video, presentations, and can speak during public hearings.
- Residents can participate from a computer or tablet with a modern browser and an internet connection or can download the free Zoom app on their smartphone.
- Audio can be accessed via computer or phone. Residents logging in this way will be given audio instructions once they have joined the meeting.
- We recommend residents log between 5 to 15 minutes before the meeting start time.
- Residents are encouraged to use the Zoom system check prior to the meeting to ensure their system meets the requirements to successfully participate in the meeting.
 - System requirements: <https://support.zoom.us/hc/en-us/articles/201362023-System-Requirements-for-PC-Mac-and-Linux>

Participating in Monday's Virtual Public Hearings

- During a public hearing, residents who wish to speak and are participating in the meeting via the Zoom meeting site or app can use the "raise your hand" feature in the meeting site.
- Speakers participating via the meeting site/app will be called upon individually to speak during the public hearing.
- Speakers should state their name and address for the record before providing their comments.

A note on general public comments during the meeting: During this time of required social distancing, Governor Abbott has lifted the requirement to have a public comment portion during each public meeting. Therefore, the City of Temple is temporarily discontinuing the public comment portion of posted agendas until normalcy is restored and the public is able to attend the meetings held for City Council or any other boards and commissions. Thank you for your understanding in the matter as we are ensuring the safety of our City's residents and Staff.
